

Bhutan:

January 18: Anthrax kills 11 cows in Mongar

An anthrax outbreak is suspected to have killed all 11 cows that belonged to five households. [more] [map]

January 18: Highly pathogenic avian influenza in Chhukha: Follow-up report No. 02 to OIE

The new cases have occurred in backyard poultry in Mebesa village. [more] [map]

January 17: Highly pathogenic avian influenza in Thimphu: Immediate notification to OIE

A poultry backyard farm in Chang Gedaphu, Chang, Thimphu has been affected. [more] [map]

January 17: Bird flu hits Thimphu

Just three days after the six-month ban on the import of poultry and poultry products from India was lifted, the ban is re-imposed following an outbreak of bird flu at Orissa, India [more]

Bangladesh:

January 15: Highly pathogenic avian influenza: Follow-up report No. 37 to OIE

Three new outbreaks affecting commercial poultry in Khulna and Dhaka. [more] [map]

India:

January 19: Livestock disease alert in Northeast India.

The project directorate on animal disease monitoring and surveillance, Bangalore, has warned that four livestock diseases, including haemorrhagic septicaemia, black quarter, foot-and-mouth disease and classical swine fever, will hit the Northeast in February-March. [more]

January 18: Bird flu in crows, culling starts in Odisha

Bird flu was detected in crow in two places of Odisha even as culling of fowls got underway in tribal dominated Mayurbhanj, the second district in the state hit by avian influenza. [more]

January 18: Bird-flu: Meghalaya to complete culling of birds today

More than 4600 fowls from 25 villages of East Garo Hills district were culled. [more]

January 17: New bird flu strain killed Jharkhand crows

Scientists at the National Institute of Virology (NIV) have found a new strain of bird flu that killed over 500 crows three months ago at Jharkhand. [more]

January 13: Highly pathogenic avian influenza Meghalaya: Follow-up report No. 01 to OIE

A State government-run poultry farm affected in William Nagar, William Nagar, East Garo Hills. [more] [map]

January 11: Highly pathogenic avian influenza in ORISSA: Follow-up report No. 02 to OIE

Outbreak in rural backyard poultry continuing. Stamping out of all domestic poultry is being applied in an approximately 3-km radius zone around the outbreak. An intensive surveillance campaign has been launched in a 10-km radius zone. [more] [map]

Pakistan:

January 19: Virus kill over 30 goats in Gadap villages

The outbreak of mysterious disease in Gadap area of Karachi has killed over thirty goats and infected hundreds of others in different villages during last few days. [more] [map]

Neighbouring countries

Iran:

January 18: Highly pathogenic avian influenza . OIE Follow-up / final report No.11 [more]

There are no new outbreaks. The event is resolved